The Frisco Community Bible Church is seeking a Cantonese Pastor. We are seeking a spiritual leader, who has a heart of pastoral ministry, is willing to train and equip disciples, and is able to lead team ministries. The qualifications include:

- (1) A pastor with two years' pastoral experience in North America or a seminarian graduate who has served in North American multi-cultural church(es);
- (2) Accredited seminary degree, M.Div. or Th.M.;
- (3) Fluent in Cantonese, with good command of conversational English. Speaking Mandarin/Putonghua a plus.

Frisco Community Bible Church is located at the city of Frisco in the northern suburb of the Dallas Metroplex. Frisco is a booming city for Chinese immigrants. The church has been established for fifteen years with attendance of 200 at its adult services (with around 60 at the Cantonese service), and 60 at its youth and children services and is getting ready with its Phase II building project. Languages at services and fellowships are in Mandarin/Putonghua, English and Cantonese.

If interested, please contact Edith Shek at PSC@FriscoCBC.org or by mail to FCBC Cantonese Pastoral Search Committee at 10055 Warren Parkway, Frisco, TX 75035.
